Building Will Arise on Old High School Property in Petersburg.

MEETING TUESDAY NIGHT

At That Time Plans for Future Operations Will Be Made.

> Times-Dispatch Bureau. 5 Bollingbrook Street (Telephone 1485), Petersburg, Va., September 29.

The Young Men's Christian Association, in the purchase of the high school property on Union Street, at the price of $14,500, as the site for the proposed new association home, shows that it means business. The property having means business. The Hust-ings Court, the sale will, of course have to be confirmed by the court. Of this confirmation there seems little doubt, unless there should be an upset doubt, unless there should be an upset bid. The price is regarded as reason-able, and the community desires to see the association established in a permanent, up-to-date home on the most eligible site that could be obtained for it.

The officers and directors of the as The omicers and therefore a sociation are men thoroughly imbued with the spirit of progress, and as one of the evidences of progress they have long had close at heart the establishment of a suitable home as an attrac-

The Petersburg Classical institute. In its corps of instructors it had some of the ablest educators in Virginia, and the institute bore a very high reputation. Hundreds of Virginians, many now dead and many still living. their education here, a received their education acre, have those spared to the present time have pleasant recollections of the old in-tito be held in this city to-morrow canvass the returns of the late congressional primary, it is certain that each will be well represented. While each side is silent as to what steps may be taken, it is generally anticipated that there will be some interesting developments. There may be a request for a recount in certain preing developments. There may be a request for a recount in certain pre-cincts, or there may be a contest, or there may be an appeal to the State Committee. But the public is in igno-rance as to what will be proposed and There are rumors of all these things, and that is all.

Church Improvement.
Improvements costing about $4,000 ust been completed at Market The entire seating arrangement of the Sunday school changed and the capacity
An addition twenty-five by the feet has been made, being nine feet has been made, ucted that it is practically a so constructed that it is practically a part of the main room, and the upper connected with the main auditorium. The church will be reopened next Sunday, and an address will be delivered by the Rev. S. D. Hatcher, D. D., a for-vision, United Confined to his home.

The family of E. G. Temple, after spending the summer at Virginia Beach, have returned to their home on Cemetery. Union Street. Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Booth have re-

Perhaps the wiley moth did not do anything to your dress suit, perhaps your language was more picturesque than polite.

Probably you needed a new suit anyway.

You can be fitted here in quick time with the most satisfactory fit you ever had. This is a suggestion—per-naps you'll be surprised at haps you'll be surprised the value we can give you. Full dress coats, $28. Tuxedo coats, $22.

Trousers, $8. Waistcoats, $3.80 to $5. The coats are cut conser-vative or on the English model. Try 'em both on.

gratified, A fineeting of the directors will be held Tuesday night to discuss the situation and to decide upon plans of future operations, A campaign to raise funds will doubtless be arranged. The old high school building has an interesting history. For many years anterior to the war it was known as The Petersburg Classical Institute."

He Was Also Invincible as Candidate for Mayoralty in Harrisonburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Harrisonburg, Va. September 29 .-Colonel O. B. Roller, fifty-seven years Chesterfield Veterans.

The Veterans and Sons of Veterans oid, for twelve years Mayor of Harritation to attend the annual reunion of the Confederate veterans of Chesterfield County, to be held at the courthouse on Wednesday, and a delegation will go to the meeting, as has been the case nearly every year. There is a close association between the Chesterfield and Petersburg veterans.

Meeting of District Committee.

Meeting of District Committee.

Should neither Mr. Turnbull nor Judge Watson attend the meeting of the Fourth District Committee, which is to be held in this city to-morrow to convert the convert th

John P. Burke was appointed by the Council to fill out Colonel Roller's term, which expired the first day of this month, when the newly elected the Mayor, John H. Downing, entered upon his duties. Colonel Rollef was a widely known Republican and had become known as invincible in his candidacy for Mayor of Harrisonburg. He took a great interest in military affairs and was a good friend of the Virginia Military In the Spanish-American Institute. War he was a colonel in the second Virginia Regiment.

In the eightles and ninetles Colonel

Roller practiced law with his brothe For ten years he had been associated in law with Ed. C. Martz.

His wife, who was Miss Margaret

Irick, has been dead for ten years. He leaves the following children: Misses Virginia, Mary, Sarah and Catherine and Edwin Roller, and the following brothers and sisters: General John E. Roller, of Harrisonburg; Rev. Personal and General.

Postmaster Stith Bolling, majoreneral commanding the Virginia Dision, United Confederate Veterans, is itte sick and confined to his home

BAKING POWDER

Better quality than the high-priced powders, but sold at about half their cost. A big worth-while saving on a year's supply. 1 lb. 20c.--1-2 lb. 10c.--1-4 lb. 5c.

Sold by all good grocers. Insist on having it.

BOYS' CORN CLUB DAUGHTER TO SUE SHOT AND ROBBED CLUB HAS RAISED The 5 Years

Members Greatly Interested in She Will Claim That He Used J. D. Evans Victim of Highway- Danville Democrats Are Doing Guarantee Preparing for State Fair-High

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Culpeper, Va., September 29.—The court action to be brought against him Boys' Corn Club of this county is reported to be in a very flourishing condition by the collaborator, Garnett Bruce. Seventy-five members are ensured and their crops this year are unusually fine. Many of them have made over 125 bushels on their allowed day that such as the court action to be brought against him and robbed by an unknown negro this morning between 3 and 10 o'clock. A message was sent to this place ask-ling the officers to search the freight trains going East, and a posse of men and over 125 bushels on their allowed day that such as the court action to be brought against him and robbed by an unknown negro this morning between 3 and 10 o'clock. A message was sent to this place ask-ling the officers to search the freight trains going East, and a posse of men trains going East and trains going East, and a posse of men trains going East, and a posse of m rolled, and their crops this year are unusually fine. Many of them have made over 125 bushels on their allotted acre, and all of them are much interested in the exhibit being prepared for the State Fair in October. The farmers of this section, while not neglecting the usual crops of corn, wheat, etc. are awakening to the possibilities of alfalfa under proper cultivation; forty demonstrations of the latter having been held in the county during the past year.

past year.

The harvesting of the chestnut crop, which has just begun in the upper part of this county and in Madison and Rappahannock, is keeping pickers and the export merchants both busy. The nuts are bringing fancy prices on the Northern markets, $15 a bushel being paid. This fancy price is due, it is said, not so much to the prevalent high cost of living, but to the blight that has destroyed so many of the trees farther north.

Rev. Stockton Cole, a Baptist minis-Rev. Stockton Cole, a Baptist minister, who has charge of the churches at New Salem and Gourdvine, in Culpeper; Remington, in Fauquier, and Washington, in Rappahannock, has under consideration a call to the Jefferson Street Baptist Church, in Roanoke. This is a prominent church, with a membership exceeding 60), but it is not known whether Mr. Cole will leave the Shilor Association, of which is a prominent member. He was appointed at the last meeting of that body to preach the annual sermon before the next session when it meets in Ruckersville next year. Mr. Cole formerly made his home in Cuipeper, where he was a merchant before study-n Ruckersville next year. Mr. Cole ormerly made his home in Cuipeper. where he was a merchant before studying for the ministry.

Justice Allen, of Madison, who is he keeper of the record of vital statistics within the Crigiersville voting recinct, said this week that since the ital statistics law went into effect in June 12, 1912, he had reported four-een births and no deaths in his dispirit.

crict.

Captain Robert R. Duncan, who died Sunday at his home, near Rixeyville, was buried the following day in the Masonic Cemetery, just outside Culpeper, the funeral services being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Clemens, of the Baptist Church at Jeffersonton. Captain Duncan was one of the oldest and tain Duncan was one of the oldest and most prominent citizens of the county and a large land owner. During the war he commanded the Rappahannock Cavalry Company, part of the Sixth Virginia Regiment, and his daring and intrepid courage gained him the name of "Fighting Bob Duncan," by which name he had always been known among his old comrades. He lost an arm in the battle of Fisher's Hill, but only remained away from his command long enough for the wound to arm in the battle of Fisher's Hill, but only remained away from his command long enough for the wound to heal, rejoining it then and continuing fighting until Appomattox.

A remarkable example of longevity is found in the person of "Aunt" Lucy Fry, an aged negress now living in the town of Culpeper. This remarkable old woman was born in the county of Orange in the year 1793, as records still in possession of the family to whom she belonged will show. Forty years before the beginning of the Civil War she and three of her children were sold to Sam Shadrack, who lived on the farm his descendants still own. farm was part of the battlefield in the battle of Cedar Mountain. She is still strong and reasonably active, helping her youngest daughter, herself an elderly woman, with the weekly washing and doing other things about the house. The only peculiarity about her diet is that she has never touched butter or milk since she was twelve years old. The descendants of her coveres the Bledsee family of is that his since she was of her or milk since she was of her owners, the Bledsoe family, of age, still keep Aunt Lucy in respectively. The same of them occasionally har little sain coming to see her at her little comin here.

A Wilson-Marshall-Hay Democratic Club was organized in Madison Courthouse on Thursday, when addresses were made by Colonel D. M. Pattle, Representative James Hay and W. W. Fields, of Madison Mills. About forty members joined Thursday, and it is expected that the number will be doubled before the next meeting. Colonel D. M. Pattle was elected president; F. P. Smith, treasurer, and N. G. Payne, secretary of the club. There will be speaking by the Hon. James Hay and George L. Browning at Criglersville on Friday evening, in which issues of the campaign will be discussed.

The three-days rain in the first of the week did considerable damage to crops of the legilagds. The Rapidan

Inion Street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Booth have returned to the city after spending the summer at Virginia Beach. Mrs. Booth has as her guest Miss Kathryn Clifford, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Robertson have returned to the city from New York, where they went to bid good-by to Miss Florence Larabee. Miss Larabee sailed for Berlin on Thursday to pursule her musical studies for two years.

John H. Vann and his wife, Lillian, colored, got into a quarrel at their home on Boillingbrook Street late last night. The result was that the husband was twice stabbed, and the wife land a little over a month.

CRUSHED TO DEATH

CRUSHED TO DEATH

George Marsdes Killed When Automobile to crops of the lewlards. The Rapidan Overflowed its banks and much river bottom corn was swept away. At Rapidan Station the water was backed up to the stores at some distance from the river, and at several villages along this city, was killed and four persons injured near here to-day when an automobile in which they were ridan and the wife banks and much river bottom corn was swept away. At Rapidan Station the water was backed up to the stores at some distance from the river, and at several villages along the first of the series of the corner was swept away. At Rapidan Overflower or was swept away. At Rapidan Overflower, and at several villages along the river, and at sev school

the school
Miss Nellie Allen, daughter of the late Abner Allen, who for many years was postmaster in Culpeper, and W.
D. Hawley, of Washington, were quietly married in that city on Wednesday, the Rev. Mr. Johnson, of the Methodist Church, performing the ceremony in the presence of friends of the couple the presence of friends or the town had accompanied them from Cul-

LOVE HAS ITS WAY

Russian Society Girl Weds Poor Mu-

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Calgary
Florence, September 29.—The marriage is announced of Louba Alexandrowsky, a Russian society giri here, to Guilo Harnisch, the violinist and son of A. E. Harnisch, the sculptor, formering Philosophia. son of A. E. Harnisch, the sculptor. Galveston formerly of Philadelphia. The bridge Hatteras mother objected to the match on the Havre ground that Harnisch had no money Jacksonville and that he was an American, and Kansas City. therefore not of noble birth. The girl Louisville was forbidden to see him but declared Montgomery. ground that Harnisch had no money accessories and that he was an American, and kansas City. 50 52 therefore not of noble birth. The girl Louisville 54 52 was forbidden to see him but declared that she would marry Harnisch when New Orleans. 72 78 whe was twenty-one. She was taken away from Fiorence, but after her twenty-first birthday managed to make her word good and the wedding took place at Lucerne the other day. The oride appeared in New York last winster as a planist.

An Etruscan tomb of the third century B. C. has been discovered at Corvicto. It contains a splendid surcohangus with an overhangling ild. The four sides are decorated with bas re-

An Etruscan tomb of the third century B. C. has been discovered at Orvicto. It centains a splendid sarcohhagus with an overhanging lid. The four sides are decorated with bas reliefs and figures forty centimetranish. Two of the groups represent Archilles killing a Trogan soldier. The other two have not yet been identified. All are brilliantly colored in primitive style, chiefly in reds and blues.

Legacy Received From

chapter in the troubles of General trains going East, and a posse of men Daniel E. Sickles. It was learned to-day that such action was contemplated.

Mr. Evans's wound was in the hand.

Although Mr. Stickney is out of mattox left for Concota, the town, it is understood that Mrs. Crack-enthorpe and her brother claim that Mr. Evans is about sixty years old, porter that as his interests are iden- bank for $200. tical with those of his sister he will orable outcome of his sister's suit he would be in a position to settle out of lieved to have undergone a change several suits as a result of the gen-eral's recent attack upon the character

Will Publish More Letters Crackenthorpe, tragic affair, was a great the late King Edward when she wed the late King Edward when she wed-ded an humble young embassy secre-tary in London in 1898. In London Mrs. Crackenthorpe danced before the King and Queen. Being half Spanish, she donned Castillian garb and tingled before Their Majesties.

eral royal seasons. Stanton Sickles, the general's son Tuesday," he said, before his departure with his mother for a brief cruise on the yacht of Henry Descher, of 43 brief and the said when I do come back. I shall make public to the said to them all, and then decide whether elieves the disgraceful statements made by my father. Socialist Candidate Out.

Socialist Candidate Out.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Harrisonburg. Va., September 29.—
Nathan Parkins, of Fort Defiance, Augusta County, has announced himself a candidate on the Socilist ticket for

Dr. E. C. Garrison, of Dayton, will run as Socialist against James Hay Democrat, and G. N. Earman, Republican, in the Seventh District.

Corner-Stone Laid. (Special to The Times-Dispatch. Harrisonburg, Va., September 29.

Church at Cave Station was laid this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the ceremonies being under the supervision of Rev. J. S. Garrison, of Harrisonburg assisted by Rev. J. P. Harner, Rev. C. D. Lerch and Rev. J. B. Stonesifer.

THE WEATHER.

t: Virginia and North Care-

CONDITIONS IN IMPORTANT CITIES Place. Ther. H.T. L.T. Weather Richmond 68 74 58 Clear Asheville 64 68 58 Cloudy Atlanta 68 68 68 Cloudy Atlanta 68 68 68 Cloudy Atlanta 69 68 68 Cloudy Atlanta 69 68 68 Cloudy 58 Clear 58 Cloudy 58 Cloudy 54 Clear 56 Rain 46 Clear 55 Cloudy 50 Clear 58 Cloudy 54 P. cloudy 55 Cloudy 55 Cloudy 54 62 Charleston ... 72

P. cloud Clear Clear
P. cloudy
Cloudy
Clear
P. cloudy
Cloudy
Clear
Cloudy
Clear

Clear
P. cloudy
Clear
P. cloudy
Clear
P. cloudy
Clear
Clear
Clear
P. cloudy 48 70

September 28, 1912. HIGH TIDE.

man Now Being Sought

day that such action was contemplated.

Mr. Evans's wound was in the hand.

Mr. Evans's wound.

Mr

enthorpe and her brother claim that the general has made other uses of their incomes for some time past. Stanton Sickles recently told a recen PASSES 800 MARK. Attendance at University of North Car-olina Breaks All Records.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Chapel Hill, N. C., September 22.—At the ending of the second week of the 1912-1913 session of the University of 1912-1913 session of the University of North Carolina the enrollment reacned the 806 registration number, and gradually the mark is climbing. The records show that it is the largest number the institution at this period of the session in all past history. The S. Powell, of Asheville; manager, Sand freshman class is unusually large, 250 ford H. Cohen. The executive commit having thus far registered. The report tee is composed of H. W. Plummer having thus far registered. having thus far registered. The text circulated to the effect that many were leaving college on account of the trag-edy in which a student lost his life as the result of hazing is altogether erron-eous. The registrar, Dr. T. J. Wilson, said that the report was not true.

A reception was given on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kluttz on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Rev. W. D. Moss. of Washington, D. C., the newly chosen paster of the Presbyterian Church of Chapel Hill. said that the report was not

An address by D. R. Fonville, a young attorney of Charlotte, and a re-cent graduate of the University of Virwas a feature of the secon week of the 1912-1913 session of the years. I have many more letters just week of the interest of North Carolina. "The out, and I intend that the public shall college Man and the Bible" was his read them all, and then decide whether theme. Mr. Fonville won a reputation during his college career at the University of Virginia as a debater and as a winner of a Phi Beta Kappa key.

Dr. John Matthews Manly, professo Wednesday night on the subject, "Alle a candidate on the Socilist ticket for Gery in Chaucer's Parliamentary Congress from the Tenth District Foules." During his short stay on the against Hal Flood, Democrat, and J. Hill Dr. Manly was the guest of Dr. E. McCullough, of Buchanan, Bull and Mrs. J. F. Royster, on East Rosemary Street.

> George Thomas, of the class and captain of the football team of 1908, is the first of a long list of alumni to aid in coaching this year's football team. He worked in co-operation with Coach Martin for the last few days of last week in shaping the team for the trying battles of the opening games. idly gaining popularity in many col-leges and universities.

> leges and universities.
>
> R. W. Winston, Jr., captain of last year's football team and now instructor and coach of athletic teams of Bingham School, of Asheville, was in Chapel Hill visiting last week.
>
> L. N. Morgan, editor of the college paper of last year, passed through Chapel Hill a few days ago on his way to Oklahoma, where he has a professiving in English in the University.

sorship in English in the University of Oklahoma.

carefully concealing the fact for nine days, even from the local police, re-luctant admission was made yesterday by President Davis H. Merritt, of the National Newark Banking Company, that the bank had been robbed about noon September 18 of three bags of gold coins, $11,000 in all. Mr. Merritt admitted that no clue to the thleves or the money had been obtained. Burns detectives are at work on the case.

thleves or the money had been obtained. Burns detectives are at work on the case.

The canvas bags containing the $11,000 in $5, $10 and $20 coins had been placed on a ledge in the paying teller's department, about four feet from a window in the glass and wood partition. This window 's not in diffusion. This window 's not in diffusion. This window 's not in diffusion. This window is not in the bank officers say, it was closed.

All the windows are protected with a space about four inches high at the bottom for the passing of money and within reach of his hand a person standing outside the window would have had to use a hooked rod at least four feet long. The bank officials think that was the method used.

The belief that the theft took place at noon 's based on the fact that a noon 's based on the fact that the day watchman were absent at the day watchman were absent at the day watchman were absent at luncheon.

Children Cry.

FOR FLETCHER'S

6-15

CASTORIA

WHIKLEU IUULATII

ING. 8 O. ELEVATOR

ING. 8 O. ELEVA

Great Work-Montague to Open Campaign.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., September 29.—The local Wilson and Marshall Club announced last night, threugh the chairman of the finance committee, Frank Tabott, that $1,000 had been subscribed locally, and that this sum will be remitted through the Virginia finance committee to the National Democratic Committee. The committee on speeches announced that ex-Governor Montague

Adjutant-General Gordon Smith. Forty members have been secured, and requisition is being made for the uniforms which will be used by the troopers, as well as saddles, bridles and blankets. The muster will take place following a meeting of the members, at which the officers will be elected. General Smith has notified Mr. Reynolds that he will detail a special officer to Asheville for the purpose of effecting the muster, and the local companies of militia will attend the meeting. attend the meeting.

At the annual meeting of the Greate Western North Carolina Association which has as its object the advertising of the western part of this State, the following officers were elected last week: president, William E. Breese, Jr., of Bervard; vice-president, W. A. Sr of Hendersonville; secretary, F. W. Mil-The report | tee is composed of H. W. Plummer of Plato Ebbs, of Hot Springs; T. T. Ba lenger, of Tryon; J. S. Silverstein, of Rossman; S. H. Hardwick, of Washing-ton; M. V. Richards, of Washington.

Under the auspices of the Ashevill Board of Trade and the local motor club, an automobile hill climb will be held in this city Thursday afternoon. The meet is sanctioned by the Amer can Automobile Association, and C. H evening last a gaptiss tean Automobile Association, and C. R. le's Union sociable was taptist Church to welcome of the Baptist faith atof the official representative of that organization. Many attractive premiums and several cash prizes have been at ounced for the various classes, and large number of entries have been re-ceived. Quite a number of out-of-town motorists have signed entry blanks, and it is expected that a large number of automobilists will be here for the event.

The most successful fair in the history of the Jackson County Fair Association was conducted at Sylva, N. C., on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of on wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week. Thousands of persons from variuos counties of the western part of the State attended the fair, and the exhibits were unusually good. The horse hibits were unusually account of the fair, and valuable premiums were awarded to the winners. The annual Haywood County Fair will begin a Haywood County Fair will begin to four days' exhibition Tuesday morning of this week and the Western North Carolina Fair Association will conduct second fair at this city October 8, Jule L. Collins has been bound to the Superior Court at Hendersonville in the sum of $5,000, charged with kill-ing Joseph F. Israel last Sunday. The two men were at the Southern passen-ger station at Hendersonville on that The latter was brought to the M Hospital, in this city, but died later. Collins claims self-defense and waived Hospital, in this city whenever the grading is from the city whenever the grading is actually inne. The cut in the first hearing. Charged with aiding and abetting in the affray, Eulah Allison awaits trial at the coming session of Henderson County Superior Court, under a bond of $400. The three men are well known in Hendersonville, and the outcome of the cases against Collins and Allison is being awaited with a great deal of interest at that place.

A unique agreement has been signed by Congressman James M Gudger, Jr., and his secretary. Owen Gudger, and only a legal recessity, but an art of solvious justice.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Wake Forest, N. C., September 29.—
While resisting arrest here this afterwhile resisting arrest nere this atter-noon Frank Wyche, a negro, was shot and immediately killed by Deputy Po-liceman James Hogood. Wyche was accused of stealing.

Covers every defect that may show within that period of the life of

THE  NNER-PLAYER

To you this CABLE CO. guarantee means that the INNER-PLAYER Piano is as nearly perfect as it can be made to stand hard usage and give perfect ser-

Catalogue free on application.

The Corley Company Mad. 2586.

City Expends $2,500 for Right It Does Not Now Expect to Exercise.

The Council Committee on Streets

will meet this afternoon at 5 o'clock in regular session, with a large number of matters pending. It is not exnected that the subcommittee appoints ed to investigate delays in completion of city contracts will be ready to report, as the committee has found a state of affairs worse than was anticinated, and Chairman Vonderlehr has announced his intention of going further into the matter. The practica of allowing contractors to specify their own time limits, culminating in the case of J. C. Cheatwood, who gave himself six months to pave two blocks on Main Street, keeping that thoroughfare from Fifth to Seventh Street open until December 10; the clause in the to the use of local quarry products, and the practice of the city in con-tracting only for its own paving in streets where there are car lines leav-ing the street railway companies to make what terms they can with the

A matter that the full committee will take up this afternoon is the grading of Park Avenue beyond the Boulevard, and other streets in the same section The report of the Assessor of Dam-ages, making allowances to abutting property cwners aggregating more than $2,500 has been adopted, and the money paid over to the propers, but it is now reported ers, but it is now reported that the Lee Ward delegation on the Street Committee has not reserved the funds from the en ual allowance to that ward to do the work, and usless prompt steps are taken the be placed in the ridiculous attitudy of having paid out large sums of money for the right to grade a street it does not at this time expect or intend to grade. Should the property mange hands, it is held by some that the parchaser, i not put on notice at the time, could claim and secure new damages and the street of the grading is

Other meetings scheduled for to day ar the Committee on Printing and Cisims, at 5 o'clock; Committee on Markets, at 8 o'clock, and a subormittee of the Council Committee on Relief of the Poor, at 8 o'clock.

The Committee on Relief of the Poor will meet to-morrow afternoon at 5:20 o'clock, and the Committees on Light and Street Cleaning to-morrow night at 8 o'clock.

Weddings As

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Staunton, Va., September 29.—Two interesting announcements of approaching weddings have been made.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Lang announce that their daughter. Irma, will be married to Powell G. Stratton at home on October 10.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wholey have launed invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Loretta, to Dr. William Gwynn Queen, of Arilington, Ma. to be celebrated at St. Frances Cathelia

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Newport News, Va., September 29.—
L. McKluski, an insurance agent, was held up at the point of a gan by two negroes lest night and relieved of 512 in cash and his watch. The negroes lured the agent to a dark spot by promising to take out two insurance policies. One of the men was arrested to-day, but the other has not yet been located.

Waste Damages for Day Ste.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Harrisenburg. Va., September 39.—

Dan Garber's deg ran out into the read at Cross Keys and bit C. H. Heakel on the leg. Henkel spent 35 with the physician and now enterwant for $100 against Carber. The conwill be tried in the Circuit Court in